

Come and Join Our Event

The Village of Cuba in Partnership with CDTC (Continental Divide Trail Coalition)

Invite

Volunteers/Community members

To

Cuba's Annual Stewardship Event at Richard W. Becker Nature Area (Ted Mace Trail) & CDT North (El Cajete)
Trailhead at Nacimiento Mine Site

On

August 2th, 2026 from 9am-2pm

Meeting Location

Forest Service Office, 4 Co. Rd. 11, Cuba NM 87013

At

9:00am, August 2, 2026

LUNCH

Will be provided by CDTC

CDTC will provide water/electrolytes (Gatorade, Powerade) for participants

Event Details

- 9:00am-9:15am: CDTC NM Rep. will go over Safety and project details
- 9:30am: Participants depart to project locations
- 9:45am-12:00pm: Trail maintenance work (brush removal)
- 12:00pm-1:00pm: LUNCH @ project locations
- 1:00pm-2:00pm: Short Educational Hikes at project locations
- 2:00pm: End of Day & Depart from project locations

Project Locations

Becker Mesa Trailhead

Enter onto US-550 and travel south on US-550 for 10.3 miles, trailhead entrance will be on your left side

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/wpqBEqAL8b9m7R5o9>

Nacimiento Mine Rec. Entrance

Turn left onto Co. Rd. 11 and travel south for 0.2 miles, then turn left onto Southern All Around Rd. for 1.2 miles to NM-226 S. and travel for 4.3 miles, Rec. entrance will be on our left side

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/j6UVAwfv9zCh7Ssx8>

RSVP NM Regional Rep
ctorivio@cdtcoalition.org or register at the Sandoval County Fair on Friday and Saturday

What to Bring

Sturdy shoes (boots preferred),
Sunscreen, Hat, Sunglasses, day pack/water pack & long pants
(recommended)